G. Award Criteria:

The principal criteria for choosing the recipient are demonstration of excellence and creativity in applied research or in applying research findings to the solution of problems in soil science; soundness in reasoning, applied research or application skills, and communication of results; and evidence of impact of achievements on the soil science profession or the information-using community.

H. Format for Nominations:

A format guide, approved by the Board of Directors or Executive Committee, is issued each year and is available on the SSSA awards webpage at www.soils.org/awards.

I. Eligibility of Nominations:

Nominations for this award are accepted only from individual active members of the Society. Members of the Executive Committee and members of the award committee are not eligible to submit nominations.

J. Eligibility of Nominees:

Membership in the Society is not required for this award. The award is intended, however, for persons with active years ahead. The contribution on which the nomination is based must have been made within the past 10 years.

K. Team Nominations:

Nomination of a team is acceptable, provided the following criteria are met--(a) at least one member of the team is a soil scientist; (b) where other disciplines are represented on the team, the soil scientist must have contributed 50% or more to the team effort; and (c) only publications where all team members are authors, or honors and awards received by the team, may be listed; individual efforts must be omitted from the nomination form; (d) only publications dated within, or relevant honors and awards received within, the last ten years, may be included on the nomination form.
